

Semantically Annotating CEUR-WS Workshop Proceedings with RML

RML is a generic language defined to express customized mapping rules from data in heterogeneous formats to the RDF data model. It is defined as a superset of the W3C-standardized mapping language R2RML.

